The City of Maple Grove is undertaking a project to inventory all residential and business boulevard and front yard trees in Maple Grove. You can help by volunteering to inventory trees in your neighborhood this summer. All training and equipment will be provided. This project will provide the City with information regarding how many ash trees could potentially be affected by the emerald ash borer and also know tree counts of other tree varieties since other plant pests are on the horizon. Contact Frank Kampel at 763-494-6365 or email fkampel@maplegrovern.gov for more information or to volunteer.

HOME ALONE - FOR PARENTS & CHILDREN

Youth & Adults

Is your child prepared to stay home alone? Does he or she know what to do in case of a fire, if there is a stranger at the door, when friends come to play, when using the internet, if they get hungry and want a snack? Be sure that you have the frank conversations and all of the necessary tools in place so your child is well equipped to stay home without an adult. Home Alone is taught by Sheryl Nefstead, a District 279 teacher with significant experience teaching teens safety and home life skills. She will guide you and your child through the important questions to consider and share the tools you need before you make the important decision to leave your child home alone. A Maple Grove Police Officer will provide your family with Hennepin County guidelines, various safety considerations and a child safety checklist. This class will help your child feel comfortable and provide you with the information you need to assure that your family is safe in all settings, but mostly when you prepare for the big step of leaving your child home alone. A collaborative program offered by Maple Grove Parks and Recreation and District 279 Community Education. Registration may be done in person during Parks & Recreation hours, by fax or by mail. Unfortunately, we are unable to process this registration electronically due to the fee structure. Instructors, Sheryl Nefstead & Maple Grove Police Officer.

There's trouble in River City when a fast-talking salesman gets his heart stolen by the town librarian. Master showman Harold Hill is in town, and he's got "seventy-six trombones" in tow. Can upright, uptight Marian, the town librarian, resist his powerful allure? Based on the timeless Broadway classic, The Music Man JR. adapts this masterful musical for young performers. The result is family entertainment at its best – a bold, brassy show that will have the whole town atwitter! The story follows fast-talking traveling salesman Harold Hill as he cons the people of River City, Iowa into buying instruments and uniforms for a kids' band he vows to organize. The catch? He doesn't know a trombone from a treble clef. His plans to skip town with the cash are foiled when he falls for Marian, whose belief in Harold's powers just might help him succeed in the end in spite of himself. The Music Man JR. features leading roles such as Marian the Librarian, Harold Hill, Amoryllis Winthrop, Mrs. Paroo and numerous roles for townspeople, travelling salespeople and the kids' band making it a toe-tapping crowd-pleaser!

T'AI CHI EXERCISE ☎ E

T'ai Chi Ch'uan is a traditional Chinese exercise system which has been widely practiced for preventative and therapeutic purposes. Occasionally referred to as "moving meditation" or "moving pole", it is one of the most popular exercise programs of Chinese tradition for improving personal fitness for people of any age. The primary benefits include postural control and balance, flexibility, coordination, agility, strength and power, sensitivity and awareness, reaction time and confidence. The movements are practiced in the beginning as slow and relaxed to develop strength while eliminating tension and increasing energy. As you advance in practice the movements will offer a practical way to learn to work with others and still reduce stress and tension. Taught by Gold T'ai Chi group, Elaine Schrade, head instructor.

INDIA CHANGES COURSE

Fed up with corruption, dynastic policies and ineffective public services, Indian voters catapulted Narendra Modi and his Bharatiya Janata Party to power in the country's 2014 elections. For voters, Modi embodied real change and an India that wasn't stumbling, but running, to greatness. But for the U.S., change in India brings its own set of unknowns, heralding an age ruled by a prime minister new to national office and other policy makers who have been out of the public eye for a decade. Now, the U.S. has to determine how to best secure its interests as India asserts itself on the world stage.

U.S. POLICY TOWARD AFRICA

Africa is in the midst of an unprecedented transformation. The continent is home to some of the fastest growing economies in the world, and it's become a draw for foreign investors from across the globe. After the "Obamamania" of 2008 died down, though, the realization that Obama wasn't going to overturn, or even prioritize, U.S. Africa policy kicked in. Still, the U.S. has promised to promote "strong institutions, not strong men" and to favor good governance and healthy economies over profit. How can U.S. policy live up to its promise and values while securing its interests in the region?

LEARN-TO- SWIM

The American Red Cross swim program helps everyone 18 months through adulthood to be safe in, on and around water. There are six comprehensive course levels that help a person progress in their strokes to proficiency and endurance. The prerequisite for each level is the successful demonstration of the skills from the preceding level, except for level 1, which has no prerequisite. Each level of Learn to Swim includes training in basic water safety and helping a swimmer in distress, in addition to the skills outlined below. Exit skills are a combination of skills learned. Instructors will be checking skills the first day of class to place the swimmer in the appropriate class. If you have any questions or concerns, contact Gayle West, 763-494-6493.
